

ROCK & ROLL MURDERS

AN ENTREPRENEUR FINDS THAT MURDER IS NO BUSINESS SOLUTION

Based on a true untold story set in the Inland Empire region of Southern California in the 1970s-1990s. Raymond McDade, a radio station owner, has 2 obsessions: succeeding in the music industry and keeping his young, ambitious wife, Alice, by his side. At the pinnacle of his success, his life regresses into a quicksand of greed, infidelity, and lost love. He'll do anything to keep both possessions... but at what cost? What ensued was a circus of events consisting of murders, extortion, and chaos that lead to a million-dollar courtroom trial where he maintains his innocence. Will anyone believe him? Would you?

By: Phillip B. Chute

"A lurid and thrilling true crime tale. The writing style is that of a slow-burning thriller, with the ends of most chapters reminding readers that something terrible and violent is brewing, and there is a threatening momentum that builds as the story moves forward. The true-crime thrill of this tangled California drama is undeniable." Self-Publishing Review ★★★★★

"The story slowly evolves its delightful complexity in a manner that makes it especially recommended for readers who want their murder mystery true crime coverages as multifarious as life itself. Its delightful review of circumstances will leave readers thinking long after the uncertain resolution of the tale." D. Donovan, Senior Reviewer, Midwest Book Review

"Chute's latest offering - smart, scary, full of grit and grift, building suspense page by page - places this author on the high shelf with Hammett, Chandler, Grafton and Parker." Barbara Bamberger Scott, Feathered Quill

"If you enjoy thrillers based on real cases, you'll love Rock and Roll Murders. If you're a fan of legal thrillers, you'll love Rock and Roll Murders. Fans of Michael Connelly and John Grisham will want to read Rock and Roll Murders." N.N. Light Book Heaven

About Phillip Chute:

Phillip Bruce Chute, EA is a businessman-writer. He is currently a tax and financial advisor with a consulting practice in Temecula, California. He is an award-winning author of many books spanning various genres.

CONTACT US:

45506 Bayberry Place, Temecula, CA 92592
951-302-2285
phillipchute1@verizon.net
www.phillipbchute.com

PhillipBChuteAuthor

PBChuteAuthor